

Unsolicited phone contact is I believe a violation of my privacy. I understand that the DO NOT CALL law has come under fire as a first amendment rights issue. This is wrong headed thinking. Unlike unsolicited mail which I can toss out without opening, you cannot ignore a phone contact. I believe my right to privacy trumps the telephone solicitors right to contact me without my consent.